Money for Ireland's evicted tenants

London, Dec. 15.—The following dispatch was sent by Mr. Justin McCarthy to Mr.
John Dillon through the Dunlap agency:
"In view of the need of the evicted tenants.
I suggest that you publicly state that the s funds now, and until fartner notice, collected in America may be sent for distribution by some reliable body in Ireland independent of the Irish party and Mr. ParPell's triends. Justin McCarthy."

To this Mr. Dillon replied, also through the same agency: "To Justin McCarthy, London: I am sending out a circular signed by all the delegates, including Mr. Harrington, urging the trensurers to send the funds to Mr. Webb and Mr. Kenny for the support of the evicted tenants. Mr. Harringten returns pledged to see the money used for this

In the House to-day the bill to appropriate $10^0.000,000 to breet a monument at Fort. Green Place, Brooklyn, to the memory of American soldiers in the Revolution who died on the British prison ships. This bill was first introduced ninety-seven years ago, and has come before Congress many times. To-day it was really defeated by Democratic votes, as enough Republicans supported it to have passed it, had the Democrats been united. The Democratic Congressmen from Brooklyn and New York were indignant at what they conceived to be want of good faith on the part of their party associates. Nearly all the Democrats voted to second the bill, and this lectifs friends to conclude that they would vote for its passage.

Representative Tucker has succeeded in getting the bill appropriating $75,000 for a public building at Staunton favorably reported to-day. It having passed the Senate, if he can secure an opportunity for a vote in the House the bill will probably pass.

The first dispatch was from Pierre, S. D., stating that Sitting Bull and his son had been killed, but giving no further particulars. The other dispatch was from Standing Rock agency, S. D., and stated that the Indian police started out this morning to arrest Sitting Bull, having learned that he proposed starting for the Bad Lands at once. The police were followed by a troop of cavalry under Captain Fouchet, and infantry under Colonel Drum. When the police reached Sitting Bull's camp on the Grand river, about forty miles from Standing Rock, they found arrangements being made for the departure. The cavairy had not yet reached the camp when the pofice arrested Bull and started back with him. His followers quickly railied to his rescue and tried to retake him. In the fight that ensued Sitting Bullis saud to have been killed. Five of the Indian police were also killed. One of the police rode back to the cavalry and infantry, and after telling them to hurry up to the support of the police, hurried on to the agency with the news of the battle. No particulars have been received, but the death of Sitting Bull and of at least five of the Indian police. and of at least five of the Indian policems undoubtedly true.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—The following tele gram was received at army headquarters this evening:

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 15.—Colonel Corbin. assistant adjutant-general, Chicago: Sitting Bull was arrested this morning at daylight by Indian police. Friends attempted his rescue, and a fight ensued. Sitting Bull, his son, Blackbird, Catch Bear, and four others were killed, also seven Indian police. Captain Fechet arrived just in time with two troops, Hotchkiss and Gatling guns, drove the Indians away and secured the body of Sitting Bull. By command of General Miles. [Signed.] MAUS, Aide."

When the Indian police, who numbered about twenty men, reached Sitting Bull's village, they found the Sioux all ready to depart for the southwest and instant action was necessary to prevent this movement, the police at once made, a rushifor Sitting Bull surrounded him, and telling him he was a prisoner, started at once on the internal strength of the agency. The old chief made no attempt at resistance, but hardly had his capture been made when his son headed a party of Bull's followers and attempted to recapture their chief. A desperate running fight ensued, and the police were getting the worst of it in the skirmish. Sitting Bull attempted to get away from his captors and to join the attacking party of his friends. He fought wildly, and was killed with several of his followers. EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY nor Mckinney-Interesting Facts. Governor McKinney yesterday pardoned Levi N. and James Madison Michaels, who were convicted at the October term of the County Court of Augusta for unlawful assault, and were sentenced to one year each in the penitentiary. The assault was made on one Daniel Husser, and that individual was also sentenced to jail. He was a short time ago pardoned, the judge, Commonwealth's attorney, and prominent citizens of the county asking for his release. From the evidence submitted to the Governor yesterday these three individuals had two fights. When arrested for the first one the only witnesses were the fighters, and the statements made were so mixed that they were discharged. In the second fight some women, who were witnesses, aver that Husser shot one of the Michaels four times with a pistol, and that the other Michaels stabbed Husser in the face with a pitchfork. The petition for pardon having been signed by the same petitioners as were for Husser. Governor McKinney, however, yesterday refused to pardon Ellen Stevens, who was convicted in the Pittsylvania County Court of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. She asked for a pardon on account of fill health, but the surgeon of the penitentiary stated in a letter to the Governor that he did not think she should be pardoned on such a plea.

MORE STATISTICS An Official Getting the Amount of Prop-A Government census official for several

A Government census official for several days past has been at work in Auditor Marye's office accertaining the value of property in Vinginia by colored people. He has completed the sixteen cities of the State, and forwarded the result of his work to the Census Bureau at Washington. He does not recollect the totals, but thinks the value of real extate in Hielmond owned by the colored people aggregates over $600,000. Under the act passed at the last session of the Assembly in making up their lists the assessors were required to designate the colored from the white tax-payers. This law was pretty generally complied with this year. When it is analyzed this work will show exactly what proportion of the laxes of the Commonwealth are borne by the colored people.

An Exection Debate Promised.

At the Young Men's Christian Association hall n x friday night there will be a joint detate between the Dixis Literary Society and the Randolph Literary Society. Mr. Louis Rich is president of the latter, and Mr. E. W. Taylor holds the same position towards the former. The question to be debated is "Resolved, that the successes of the Confederaces were owing more to the atility of their generals than to the character of the troops." The affirmatives will be represented by the Dixie Society. Messrs. T. W. Gardner and S. C. Hatcher being the speakers. The Randolphs have the negative side of the question, Messrs. W. Mac, Jones and C. M. Wallace, Jr., being the speakers. All four are good debaters.
